

DR RITA RAKUS

The London Lip Queen

Fraxel

The holiday season is fast upon us providing the ideal motivation to look and feel our very best. And looking good is a cinch with the help of Dr Rita Rakus, one of London's leading cosmetic doctors who keeps abreast of all the latest results and treatments worldwide for best results and safety.

Dr Rita Rakus is in demand for many reasons. Over the past 15 years she has become renowned for her subtle results that has made her facial rejuvenation treatment procedures legendary and is the largest European provider for Thermage for the face, body and cellulite treatment. Combine this with her sensitive approach to clients and a commitment to professional practice and safety (she co-founded and is a Fellow of the British Association of Cosmetic Doctors) and you can understand why Dr Rakus has the A-list knocking at her door.

Her tastefully appointed clinic in London attracts some of the most prestigious clients worldwide and she visits clinics in Edinburgh and Aberdeen on a regular basis. She is renowned for her subtle results and has patients from as far as the USA, Europe, the Middle East and Russia who all come to the UK just to see her for their treatment.

And what better time to indulge in one of her state-of-the-art treatments than just before the summer? Dr Rakus is renowned for her highly successful lip-enhancing technique, but there are many other popular procedures to discover at her clinic. These include the new Thermage Body

Tip, a treatment that can help you lose inches and give you a firm stomach in time to don that revealing bikini. Other client favourites include Fraxel, which improves pigmentation, fine lines, stretch marks and acne scars with pixilated laser technology or the popular post-birth "mummy tummy" treatment that combines Thermage and Fraxel with LipoSonix. So whether you're jetting off to the Caribbean or just relaxing at home call on Dr Rakus to help you look good!
